

1. Everyone needs to hear the Gospel message

- a) Revelation 14:6
- b) Matthew 24:14
- c) Matthew 28:19
- d) Acts 1:8
- e) Why is it urgent for everyone to hear the Gospel message? John 3:16; 2 Peter 3:9
- f) Why is every follower of Jesus invited to participate in sharing the Gospel message with others who have not yet heard?
- g) How does participating in the Gospel Commission help us prepare for the End Time?
- h) How do we know when it's too late for some people to hear the Gospel message? Luke 23:32–43

2. Present truth as part of the message of the First Angel

- a) Fear God, Revelation 14:7a
 - i) What does it mean to “fear God”? Genesis 22:12; Exodus 20:20; Job 1:9; Proverbs 9:10; Ecclesiastes 12:13
 - ii) How can we move from fear to reverence in our relationship with God?
 - iii) What is the most important indicator of our reverence for God—how quiet we are in church, or something else?
- b) Give Him glory, Revelation 14:7a

- i) How can we as frail human beings give glory to God? Luke 2:13–14, 20
- ii) How can our lives encourage others to give glory to God? Matthew 5:16
- c) The Hour of His judgment, Revelation 14:7b
 - i) What judgment is referred to here?
 - (1) Matthew 12:36
 - (2) Romans 2:6
 - (3) 1 Corinthians 4:5
 - ii) What promises of Scripture remind us we can face the judgment unafraid?
 - (1) John 5:22–24
 - (2) 1 John 1:9
 - (3) Isaiah 1:18
- d) Worship Him, Revelation 14:7c
 - i) Worship Him who made heaven and earth, the sea and springs of water. (see Exodus 20:11)
 - ii) How would you respond to someone who said, “Sabbath, Sunday—it’s just a matter of preference”? What difference does it make which day we choose to worship God?
 - iii) How does an awareness of God as our Creator influence the way we worship each Sabbath?
 - iv) How can we worship God as Creator all week?

