

1. Coming to Mount Zion

- a) Hebrews 12:20-22 Why is coming to Mount Zion better than coming to Mount Sinai?
- b) Why is the invitation to come to Mount Zion such good news?
- c) Share the time when you decided to come to Mount Zion and personally accept all that Jesus has accomplished for your salvation.

2. Coming to God, the Judge of all

- a) Hebrews 12:23 Many people are afraid of the judgment. Why is coming to God, the Judge of all, also good news? (see also Daniel 7:9-10,13-14, John 5:22-24, Revelation 14:6-7)
- b) When did you begin to realize that we do not need to be afraid of the final judgment if Jesus is our Judge?
- c) What counsel would you give to a friend you says to you, “I love Jesus, but I am afraid of the final judgment”?

3. Surviving the shaking of the heavens and the earth

- a) Hebrews 12:25-26 When did the voice of God shake the earth? (see Exodus 19:18-19, Psalm 68:7-8)
- b) When will the voice of God shake the heavens? Haggai 2:6-9, Hebrews 12:26-27
- c) What other prophecies in the Scriptures assure us of God’s ultimate triumph over all forces that seek to overthrow His kingdom and oppress His people? Daniel 2:44, Daniel 7:27,

Revelation 19:19-21, 2 Peter 3:10-13, etc.

4. Inheriting an unshakeable kingdom

- a) Hebrews 12:27-28 What things that cannot be shaken will remain in God’s unshakeable kingdom? (see Psalm 16:8, 62:1-2, 119:142, 125:1)
- b) Hebrews 12:29 Why is it good news that the King of the unshakeable kingdom is a consuming fire?
- c) We live in a world that is filled with disruption and uncertainty. What are your thoughts about receiving a kingdom which cannot be shaken?

5. Responding to God’s goodness and grace

- a) Hebrews 12:28, 13:15-16 What are some appropriate responses to God’s mercy and grace?
- b) What inspired counsel does the apostle Paul give to Christian in Rome and also to us as recipients of God’s mercy and grace? Romans 12:1-2
- c) Share an example from the Scriptures of someone who responded to the goodness and grace of God.
- d) What practical ways has God shown you to respond to His goodness and grace?
- e) How can we encourage others to become a part of God’s unshakeable kingdom?

